CUP YACHTS WILL HAVE BUSY SEASON.

The Vanitie is nearer the camera; the Resolute back.

The Vanitie is nearer the camera; the Resolute back.

The two cup defenders, Vanitie and Resolute, are due for a busy season of racing in the waters of New York, according to the present schedule. The Defiance, the third defender built last year, has been sold for junk, but the Vanitie and Resolute are both in fighting trim, and their owners assert that they will preserve them until Sir Thomas Lipton cap see his way clear to sail for the famous America's Cup.

The speedy yachts have already run two races. Their first meeting was off Glen Cove on July 3 at the New York Yacht Club regatta. The second was at the Larchmont regatta on July 5, the third will be at Indian Harbor regatta on July 7, and the fourth at the Seawanhaka Corinthian regatta on July 9.
